

Name _____

Date _____

The Boy From Tomorrow Vocabulary Builder #2

Directions: Choose an adjective from the box to finish each sentence below.

| | | | |
|--------------|-----------|-------------|-----------|
| amenable | feeble | incongruous | rapturous |
| drastic | foremost | indignant | rational |
| earnest | gullible | mundane | succinct |
| excruciating | impulsive | quaint | vehement |

1. With its rocking chair, braided rug, and calico quilt on the big brass bed, our room at the bed-and-breakfast was delightfully _____.
2. I felt _____ when I heard the committee was making plans without my input.
3. The professor is the world's _____ expert on Sumerian mythology.
4. When revising your essay, trim unnecessary words to make your argument as _____ as possible.
5. There was a _____ look on her face as the orchestra began to play her all-time favorite song.
6. When the boy came to the circulation desk asking for the great political speeches of Rufus Choate, it took me a second to realize he was in _____.
7. Shaving your head results in a _____ change in appearance!
8. I've never believed in ghosts, but I can't think of a _____ explanation for the shower turning on by itself and the cheerful whistling of "Fly Me to the Moon."
9. When the hockey puck hit Sarah in the nose, the pain was _____.
10. When I told Peter I'd won an unlimited supply of Pringles potato chips for the rest of my life, he's so _____ he actually believed me!
11. You can have your adventures, but eventually you must come home again and do the _____ things like cleaning your room and finishing your homework.
12. When Albert showed up at the wedding in a gorilla costume, we considered this choice _____ at best.
13. Instead of making a _____ excuse, just tell your friend you don't feel like going to the movies tonight.
14. When they got married Grandma and Grandpa had only known each other four days, but fortunately they never regretted this _____ decision!
15. When the two groups of friends spotted each other at the restaurant and Harry suggested they ask for one big table, everyone else was _____.
16. Sam made a _____ protest when I suggested a trip to the zoo, explaining that he believes animals should live freely in their native habitats.